Scoring matrix for Brentwood Mental Health and Wellbeing Small Grant Scheme 2019

Each Brentwood Mental Health and Wellbeing Small Grant Scheme applcation will be scored against the following key criteria guidance notes).criteria.and the set criteria.set criteria.set criteria and how all of the project activities contribute to them.2The application demonstrates how those with lived experience have been involved in the panning and delivery of the project and shows evidence of need.The application shows a experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and need.The application shows a small amount of evidence of the application shows a small amount of evidence of need.The application clearly demonstrates how the success of the project mail applicant plans to measure with sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application shows a small amount of evidence of need.The application shows a small amount of evidence of need.The application clearly demonstrates how the success of the project will be success of the project will be applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application shows a small amount of evidence of need.The application clearly reasonable evidence that the application shows a small amount of evidence of now the the success of the project will be additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application shows a small amount of evidence of now the application shows a small amount of evidence of no		Criteria/score	0%	Up to 33%	Up to 66%	Up to 100%	Total Weighting how those with lived experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and shows evidence of need.evidence of those with lived experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and no evidence of need.reasonable evidence that thase been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and shows evidence of need.demonstrates how those with lived experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and reasonable evidence of need.reasonable evidence that thase been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and reasonable evidence of need.reasonable evidence that thase been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and reasonable evidence of need.reasonable evidence that thase been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and reasonable evidence of need.reasonable evidence of need.reasonable planning and delivery of the project and reasonable evidence of need.reasonable evidence of need.reasonable eviden	1	how the project meets the criteria (see page 2 of the information and	evidence of how the project	are tenuous links between the project and the set	demonstrates some good links between the project	demonstrates the links between the project and the set criteria and how all of the project activities	40%

how the applicant will measure the success of the project through identifiable outcomes.evidence on how the applicant plans to measure the success of the project or any identifiable outcomes.small amount of evidence of how the the success of the project will be measured with some identifiablereasonable evidence of how the success of the project will be measured with good identifiable outcomes.demonstrates how the success of the project 	2	how those with lived experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and shows evidence of	evidence of those with lived experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and	small amount of evidence that those with lived experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and a small amount of evidence of	reasonable evidence that those with lived experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and reasonable	demonstrates how those with lived experience have been involved in the planning and delivery of the project and clear evidence of	20%
4The application demonstrates that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project - such as the use of volunteer time or donated materials/equipment.The application shows no evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application shows a small amount of evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application shows a small amount of evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application shows a small amount of evidence that the application shows a additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application clearly evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application clearly evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application clearly evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application clearly evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application clearly evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application clearly evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project.The application clearly evidence the project.The application clearly evidence the project.The application clearly 	3	how the applicant will measure the success of the project through identifiable outcomes.	evidence on how the applicant plans to measure the success of the project or	small amount of evidence of how the the success of the project will be measured with some identifiable	reasonable evidence of how the success of the project will be measured with good	demonstrates how the success of the project will be measured with clear and robust identifiable	20%
how the project will be sustainable after the small grant scheme has ended. evidence of how the project sustainable once the small grant scheme has ended. evidence of the sustainable sustainable once the small grant scheme has ended. evidence of the sustainability of the project once the small grant scheme has ended. evidence of the sustainability of the project once the small grant scheme has ended. evidence of the sustainability of the project once the small grant scheme has evidence of the sustainability of the project once the small grant scheme has evidence of the sustainability of the project once the small grant scheme has evidence of the sustainability of the project once the small grant scheme has evidence of the sustainability of the project once the small grant scheme has evidence of the sustainability of the project once the small grant scheme has evidence of the sustainability once the small grant scheme	4	the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the project - such as the use of volunteer time or	evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind	The application shows a small amount of evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the	reasonable evidence that the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind value for the	The application clearly evidences how the applicant has sought additional external funding or in kind	10% ended. Indended.	5	how the project will be sustainable after the small grant scheme has ended.	evidence of how the project will be sustainable once the small grant scheme has	small amount of evidence of how the project will be sustainable once the small grant scheme has ended.	demonstrates reasonable evidence of the sustainability of the project once the	demonstrates clear and robust evidence of the sustainability of the project	10%