We use SENTRA for our security, at first instance they ID customers for age to prevent underage drinking, we have a strict dress code policy, CCTV all over the premises, plastic glasses in our lounge area

b) The prevention of crime and disorder:

prevention of crime and disorder - we have security at the doors every day we are open, our premises is connected to police in case of any danger, SENTRA on our doors a professional team, they have access to our radios and CCTV, they vet IDs,

c) Public safety:

public safety - we have our own car park and are in a secluded area, ID check for underage drinking check, water always available, hot drinks always available, door staff available to check from 6pm till close, responsible drinking, chaperoned to their vehicles to minimise disruption and noise outside

d) The prevention of public nuisance:

public nuisance - once people leave the premises door staff escort to the cars, we limit our bookings to our maximum capacity of 300 people, we are an unlicensed premises so we don't sell alcohol, our premises is very well lit to prevent nuisance,

e) The protection of children from harm:

children over 8 dining whilst supervised by adult, if we see harm contact police, we are a family friendly fine dining business, in the restaurant there is no exposure to sexual references, we are an unlicensed premises so our staff will never make the mistake of serving alcohol to underage children.
