1.0 REASONS FOR RECOMMENDATIONS

Section 19 of the Police and Justice Act 2006 requires every Local Authority to have a Crime and Disorder Committee with the power to review, scrutinise, and make reports and recommendations regarding the functioning of the CSP.

As outlined above the Committee are asked to perform the scrutiny function for the CSP. The Committee is asked to consider the work of the CSP as summarised in the attached annual report and to refer any comments or concerns to the partnership. This provides a scrutiny and monitoring function of the Council's partnership role in improving community safety.

3.0 BACKGROUND INFORMATION

1. The requirement for local authorities to have a committee which carries out a scrutiny role was enacted by the Crime and Disorder (Overview and Scrutiny) Regulations 2009 that came into force for local authorities in England on 30th April 2009.
2. The Act and the Regulations do not require Council's to alter existing committee structures but specify that there must be a formal place where community safety matters can be discussed.
3. At the Policy Board meeting on 17 June 2009 (minute 78 refers) it was agreed that the Overview & Scrutiny Panel will carry out the function of the Crime and Disorder Committee.
4. Each year the CSP provides an annual report to the Committee (see Appendix B).

The Public Sector Equality Duty applies to the Council when it makes decisions. The duty requires us to have regard to the need to:

- a) Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other behaviour prohibited by the Act. In summary, the Act makes discrimination etc. on the grounds of a protected characteristic unlawful
- b) Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- c) Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not including tackling prejudice and promoting understanding.

The protected characteristics are age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, gender, and sexual orientation. The Act states that 'marriage and civil partnership' is not a relevant protected characteristic for (b) or (c) although it is relevant for (a).

The proposals in this report will not have a disproportionately adverse impact on any people with a particular characteristic.
